

An update on our 2020 Spring & Summer Fine Craft Fairs

It is with heavy hearts that we, the PGC board of directors, our Fine Craft Fair board, and our Fine Craft Fair Manager must inform you that, due to the ongoing Covid19 crisis, we have cancelled our Spring and Summer Fine Craft Fairs for 2020.

It's the time of year when we are usually bringing together the most unique, talented, and expert artisans with collectors who can't wait to visit them and buy their work. This year, we must accept that we won't be celebrating fine craft as a group, as we usually do, at Rittenhouse Square in May and the Chase Center on the Riverfront in Wilmington DE, in July.

That does not mean we can't still celebrate fine craft, though! Please check our website for a full list of the artisans we'd planned to see at these two fine events. We've included links to all their websites and we encourage you to visit them and support them – buy from them – during this time of great financial stress on these artisan-entrepreneurs whose first and second-quarter earnings have been hard-hit by Covid19.

Until we can see you again – hopefully at our Fall and Winter 2020 Fine Craft Fairs – take care and buy something handmade, original, and beautiful!
